

Claim

Method for calling up actions on output devices which are controlled from a centre,

- 5 wherein a request is sent from a mobile radio device to the centre, wherein the position of the mobile radio device and the output devices which can be accessed therefrom are determined, wherein a transaction number is displayed in each case at these available output devices, and
- 10 wherein the action takes place by entering this transaction number at the mobile radio device or at the output device.